TERMS & CONDITIONS

Payment Due

Payment is due according to the payment terms shown on this invoice. Any balance not paid by the due date may be subject to late fees where permitted by law.

Invoice Accuracy

Please review this invoice promptly. Any questions or disputes regarding charges should be submitted in writing as soon as possible.

Additional Work

This invoice may include approved changes, additional labor, materials, service calls, or other work performed outside the original estimate or scope.

Deposits & Prior Payments

Any deposits, progress payments, credits, or previous payments received have been applied to the balance shown where applicable.

Returned or Failed Payments

Returned checks, declined payments, chargebacks, or other failed payment attempts may be subject to additional fees where permitted by law.

Ownership of Materials

To the extent permitted by law, materials and equipment supplied for the project remain the property of the contractor until payment has been made in full.

Warranty

Any applicable workmanship warranty begins upon completion of the work unless otherwise stated. Manufacturer warranties are subject to the manufacturer's terms and conditions.

Collection Costs

If an unpaid balance is referred for collection or legal action, the customer may be responsible for reasonable collection costs, attorney fees, and related expenses where permitted by law.

Acceptance

Payment of this invoice constitutes acknowledgment of the charges and acceptance of these terms, except for any amounts disputed in writing.
